Grandparents
Day Is Coming

Don't forget! The first Sunday after Labor Day is National Grandparents Day. Take a few minutes to track down your grandparents and let them know they're in your thoughts. A card, a phone call or a visit will really make their day. You'll be glad you took the time to listen to their stories and learn more about the good old days.

Sunset on Summer

The Labor Day holiday signals the unofficial end of summer. Play, picnic, splash and celebrate the last days of the season! Fall arrives Sept. 22.

Good Grief!

The first "Peanuts" comic strip, written by Charles M. Schulz, appeared in seven newspapers on Oct. 2, 1950. Schulz originally wanted to call the strip "Li'l Folks," but United Feature Syndicate changed it to "Peanuts," a name Schulz never liked.

"The journey between what you once were and who you are now becoming is where the dance of life really takes place."

SOCK HOP

Excitement is coming your way!! Invite your families to our Sock Hop and Floats. Let's get together and enjoy our beautiful '50s room and patio area.

Decade Fun

During the Month of September our Courtyard Family will be surfing through the decades. We will start the first week Discoing through the '80s. We will have ants in our pants (popular game in 1970s) as we groove through the '70s the 2nd week. The 3rd week of September will find us looking for peace and love in the '60s, and finally, as we enter the 4th week, we will hit those awesome '50s. Who still has their poodle skirts? Everyone is invited to dress up on our dance days for the era we are celebrating, but please remember to keep it appropriate. Let's have some fun with this!!!

Fun Facts About Elvis

For fans of Elvis Presley, Jan. 8 is a special day—the entertainer's birthday. To mark the occasion, here's some trivia about the man who will forever be known as the King of Rock 'n' Roll.

He was a twin. Presley's twin brother, Jesse Garon Presley, died at birth. His mother, Gladys, claimed that because of this, Elvis had the energy of two people. Elvis as Tony? Film director Robert Wise originally wanted Presley to star as Tony, the male lead in the 1961 movie version of the musical "West Side Story." But Colonel Tom Parker, Presley's business manager, felt the role wasn't right for the star, and the part eventually went to actor Richard Beymer.

He pitched one product. Though his likeness has been used in countless ads and promotions, Presley himself made just one product commercial during his entire career. In 1954, he recorded a radio jingle for Southern Maid Donuts, a favorite of the King.

He had presidential genes. Various genealogy studies show that Presley was distantly related to two U.S. presidents, Abraham Lincoln and Jimmy Carter.

Miss Karen turns another year older on September 21. She has a great sense of humor. When asked how old she will be, Karen said, "25." She then began to laugh and said, "No, I'll be 85." Karen worked for the city of Lovington, New Mexico for 15 years.
